

Road Trip to Rome

Romans 15:22-23

Kurt Jones

August 21, 2005

For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he would not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

Acts 20:16

In order to have a successful journey...

1. We've got to know our destination. v.22-25
The Great Commission is accomplished by

_____.

Amazing progress - In 1974, approximately one-half of the world's population was beyond the reach of the Gospel, living in unreached people groups. TODAY, just one third of the Earth's population live in unreached people groups.

2. We've got to have adequate supplies. v.26-29
The Great Commission is accomplished by

_____.

"More missionaries are now sent from non-Western churches than from the traditional mission sending bases in the West."

3. We've got to have enough POWER. v.30-33
The Great Commission is accomplished by

_____.

"God has given us a clear and simple thing to finish: to see that Christ is worshipped and followed in every people."

APPLICATION